

Central London, Georgian Townhouse W1

If you are looking for a Central London location for a fashion shoot, filming, interviews or an event, this Georgian Townhouse in W1 with its elegant features, is the perfect setting. The house contains flexible rooms, with different backdrops to work with. With its own Gallery with a blank canvas to work with, this can be used for presentations or photographic shoots. There is also an additional Studio space, which is perfect for as an extra space for exhibitions. The Asia House Library, includes a huge selection of books on Asia and creates a relaxed setting for interviews and documentary filming. Period glamour is also provided in the 'Fine Rooms' with natural light, varnished wooden floors and architectural details. Molded ceilings, marble fireplaces and crystal chandeliers are featured. There is a stunning, suspended staircase at the entrance of the Townhouse.

020 7482 1555 - Georgian Flat and Tube Location for a fashion shoot, filming, interviews or an event, this Georgian Townhouse in W1 with its elegant features, is the perfect set

Carol Hayes Management

