

Grand Designs - Lincolnshire

Famous for their appearance in Grand Designs this incredible house is found nestled in the heart of the Lincolnshire countryside. Lovingly designed to the highest specification. The one of the largest panes of glass found in a domestic building at 14 square meters. The interior has a large kitchen / diner area and with the expanse of glass and open space has an uninterrupted view of the countryside. Upstairs there is a walkway connecting the two sleeping areas. Unique and fabulous this property is a must have for a stunning shoot.
