

Ascot Mansion

Ascot Mansion suggests French Renaissance from the outside, with solid off white stone cladding, ornate chimney pots and grey slate roof . Inside there are many Art Deco features, marble staircases, marble floors and a classic modern design, with spectacular door frames made of black lacquer and a 12 ft ceiling. The hallways boasts a treble height ceiling with dome with crystal chandelier. All bathrooms are unique, all styled to each bedroom, whilst the rest of the house offers 7 reception areas, including cinema, large entertainment area, bar and club area, with club sound system and a fully equipped gym. Outside is a modern renaissance garden, with Italian features, including raised colonnade with dome, a central pond and large patio areas.
