

Craven Park - Newbury

Craven Park was built in 1774 by the 6th Baron of Craven. Surrounded by 136 acres of Capability Brown parkland, the mansion has been lovingly restored with a mix of the modern whilst keeping the beautiful Georgian facade. There are 10 ensuite bedrooms, a grand ballroom, cinema, games room and a fully equipped gym. The parking allows for up to 60 vehicles and can be used exclusively for film shoots and stills campaigns.
