

Fournier Street - E1

Fournier Street is a 1721 Huguenot silk merchant's house in the heart of magical Spitalfields. It was rescued from dereliction by its current owner. Built over five floors, connected by an elegant staircase, it is fully panelled with high ceilings, wide floor boards and open fires. There is a shady courtyard garden to the rear with an ancient fountain. Great for fashion shoots and period dramas.

020 74925555 | E11 724 | Historic silk merchant's house in the heart of magical Spitalfields. It was rescued from dereliction by its current owner. Built over five floors, connected to the street by a private staircase.

Carol Hayes Management

