

Highgate House

Highgate House is an Edwardian terrace and the perfect blend of traditional charm and contemporary elegance. Embraced by an ambiance of light and space, with large windows ensuring each room is flooded with natural brightness, the location maintains its traditional Edwardian heritage, evident in its high ceilings and classic architectural details. Yet, a stunning open-plan double-height extension seamlessly integrates modernity, creating an airy and expansive living space. The interior is gracefully painted in natural tones, providing a calm and soothing environment. Every corner speaks of understated luxury, from the meticulously chosen fixtures to the harmonious blend of old-world charm and contemporary design. Traditional meets modern, offering a tranquil, light-filled, and spacious environment. Available for hourly bookings.

0917493 1155 is an Edgewood terrace and the perfect blend of traditional charm and contemporary elegance. Embraced by an ambiance of light and space, with large windows

Carol Hayes Management

