

Jury House EC1

A truly splendid building in the heart of Clerkenwell. This old courthouse still has many of the original features, including a 20 meter dome, ceilings which reach up to 9 meters and huge 7m arched windows. There is a roof terrace with an infinity pool which is heated throughout the year. As this is a private members club the main courtroom areas are available on weekends only. However the bar area and a beautiful room with plastered walls which can be made available during the week
