

Kemsing Estate - Kent

This marvellous 17th century estate is steeped in history and has and offers an abundance of possibilities. The interior of the main house has many of the original features from the Caroline period (1633) with a stunning staircase and several bedrooms with four poster beds. As well as the main house there are a myriad of different options to shoot in. This includes an orangery, some old stables (with features from bygone days), a kitchen garden, potting shed, greenhouse, a boxing ring, tennis courts, swimming pool, and many fascinating derelict outbuildings. In addition to this marvellous property there are hundreds of acres of woodlands and thousands of acres of farmland. They are host of many shoots, including filming for the TV comedy drama The Great. Kemsing Estate is based just outside of Sevenoaks in Kent, so within easy access from London.

1907-1908. The interior of the main house has many of the original features from
Carol Hayes Management

