

Lavender Farm DA4

A picturesque 16th Century Farmhouse with beautifully renovated interiors which still showcase many original features. Oak wood beams, working Aga, original fireplaces and textured interior backdrops. The property also has a beautiful 400sqm Oak Timbered threshing Barn Located in a quiet, unspoilt farmyard, amidst rolling hills of countryside and farmland Features Include: Black timber exterior Exposed beams interior High ceilings Original features Multiple large access doors Excellent crew facilities, Farmyard with cottages, oast house and farmhouse. There is also a beautiful detached tudor farmhouse set on castle ruins in a picturesque valley. Overall this entire estate is film friendly farm with an abundance of crops, backdrops, colours, textures and buildings. Excellent crew facilities. Over 1,200 acres of land. They have planted many varied crops purely for photographic backgrounds - giving colour, form and structure throughout all seasons. The stunning landscape, half-timbered film-friendly Barn and our close proximity to London, make the farm an excellent choice for creative agencies, advertising agencies, TV commercial shoots, fashion editorial photography seasons. Alongside traditional arable crops, they offer extensive floral and wildflower fields, rolling hills, Lavender, sunflowers, Hop Gardens, Apple Orchards, Maize, grasslands... and much more. From fashion shoots in Lavender fields through to commercials filmed in our Kent hop gardens, and agricultural vehicles on hire for films, they have a diverse range of landscape backdrops.

