

Pale Blue Door E8 EXCLUSIVE

A collection of curiosities set in what was originally a warehouse of 1000 square feet, now divided into a variety of small spaces on different levels. The home of a successful set designer, this venue regularly holds supper clubs and is perfect for clients wanting to host a quirky event in what is in effect an immersive art installation. Think Alice in Wonderland on acid, or Hansel and Gretel's home shot by Tim Walker. Capacity of 40. Wooden and concrete floors, working kitchen, and a miniature bedroom access up a ladder.

what was originally a warehouse of 1000 square feet, now divided into a variety of small spaces on different levels. The home of a successful
Carol Hayes Management

