

Seaside arts and crafts Beach House Whitstable

The House based in Whitstable is a popular location for photographers & film-makers. Inside, the tongue and groove kitchen, arts and crafts sitting room, open fire-place, galleried staircase, artworks & furnishings are useful backdrops. Outside the scope is endless with the clapboard house & outbuildings (pilot's cabin & Victorian fridge), wrap-around deck & verandah, wild flower meadow & garden, miles of beach & brightly-painted beach huts & 'The Street' the spit of land that stretches half a mile or so out to sea each low tide. The setting is flexible, whatever the weather, shelter provided by the verandah, beach huts & 'view shelters'. North-facing the light is ideal and the seascapes, sunsets and sunrises frequently capture
