

The Savile Club

Established in 1868 by a group of the most distinguished writers and artists of the time the Savile Club's home is a fine 18th Century house in the heart of Mayfair, whose air of elegant exclusivity reflects the uniquely creative ambiance which is still preserved today. The Club remains largely 'artistic' with many authors, scriptwriters, journalists, actors, television producers and musicians attending as members.

