

Weston Park House North London

Weston Park House is a stunning property located in North London, offering a wealth of features that lend themselves beautifully to a wide range of photo and film shoots. The interior showcases elegant details throughout, including a luxurious marble en-suite bathroom that connects seamlessly to a large dressing room complete with bespoke wardrobes. The generously proportioned living spaces consist of two sophisticated reception rooms and a spacious kitchen-dining area, centered around an eye-catching marble island. Five inviting bedrooms, all with ample natural light, ensure plenty of variety and visual interest. Notable design elements include wooden parquet flooring in the kitchen and living room, as well as bespoke wood doors on the ground floor, each adding warmth and character. Outdoors, the property boasts a unique north-facing garden, perfect for outdoor lifestyle or product shoots that demand excellent natural light. Whether you're capturing timeless elegance or contemporary family life, Weston Park House provides an inspiring and versatile backdrop for any creative project.
